To whom concern

This letter constitutes an official recommendation Letter for Mr. Nidal Awartany who served as an IT business consultant at Dada Group since 2016.

Mr. Nidal is an excellent IT business consultant, who possess professional skills and outstanding ability of collecting information and developing customers reports and charts to give a very helpful recommendation for our Company.

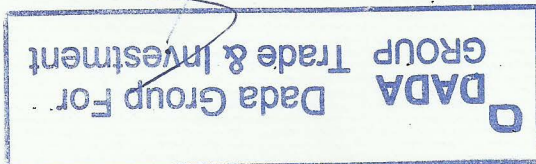

We also found out that Mr. Nidal has strong group communication skills, which are very useful in his business consulting career, and his professional and refined approach makes his work much more valuable to clients.

Mr. Nidal was always innovative with the applications he recommends; he was the main reason why our Company has improved AX 2012 system.
